Empire City Lodge No. 42, I. O. F. S. of I., celebrated its sixteenth anniversary last night at the Café Lenox. The hall was crowded, and those present listened eagerly to the piano solos, songs and recitations executed by members of the lodge.

After the entertainment the young folks indulged in a dance. The affair was managed by M. J. Stein. I. Hirsh, I. Schwartz, K. Gold, A. H. Fleischer, G. Baum, S. F. Helstein, A. Frank and H. Gersoni.

During the evening S. Steinbrick, the Financial Secretary of the lodge, was presented with a gold watch. The presentation speech was made by Saloman Hoffheimer, who praised Mr. Steinbrick highly for the manner in which the books and accounts of the lodge had been kept for the past seven years. Mr. Steinbrick made a short speech of thanks.

HE IS SERIOUSLY ACCUSED BEFORE POLICE COMMISSIONER FRENCH.

Yesterday's Police Trials-A Lot of Blue-Conted Violators of Department Rules, and What They Said in Their Own Excuse or Defense.

It came around to Commissioner French's urn to hear the police trials yesterday.

The first case was that of Officer Donegan Sixth Precinct, who was charged by Sergt. Thompson with returning from his post before he was relieved. The officer said he saw his relief, who saluted him, and he supposed he was relieved.

Sergt. Bell, Seventh Precinct, reported Roundman Charles Bernstein derelict in his duty in not getting up when called to attend a fire at 256 Madison street, May 10. Bernstein said he was not properly called.

Extra duty which kept him on his feet thirty six hours, together with the calling away of his wife by sickness in her family. formed the excuse of Officer Clancy, Twentyfirst Precinct, for an absence from roll-call Keibrick is a man far above the ordinary neight and said Commissioner French to him 'It's a curious thing that you didn't see it. You ought to have looked over the whole region from that altitude."

There was considerable contradictory tes timony for and against Officer Gilbride, of the Eighteenth, who was charged by Capt. Clinchy with returning too soon from post and with being so much intoxicated as to be unfit for duty May 5 at 11.35 p. M.

Gilbride was dismissed from the force sev eral years ago, but was reinstated by a unani-mous vote of the full Board. He has re-ceived two honorable mentions—one for sav-ing four lives at a fire in the St. George flat and one for arresting the man who killed Officer Mallon. He has made a number of daring arrests, at one time catching three burglars at Fire Commissioners Croker's residence.

Officers Henry T. Murray and John Shan-ahan, Ninth Precinct, were reported as holding a fourteen minutes' conversation. They denied the charge, and agreed in the story that they were only together while Murray fixed his stocking, which had slipped down in his rubber boot. Meanwhile, Shanahan held his comrade's night-st.ck.
John J. Munson, Ninth Precinct, had to go

The Electric Athletic Club will hold its picnic and games on Memorial Day at Schuetzen Park, Union Hill, N. J. The sports will consist of walking, running, jumping, tug-of-war, wheelbarrow race, piecating contest, tub race, greased pig race, sack race and boxing and wrestling contests.

Emil Koos, the new short-distance runner of the New York Athletic Club, has run three trial heats at 100 yards on the club grounds. His first trial was done in 19 2-5s., his second in 10 1-5s., his third in 10 3-5s. The last trial was against a strong wind. Billy Robertson and Geo. Goldie held the watches.

George Gray, of the New York Athletic Club, succeeded in practice in breaking the record with the 16-pound shot, the distance being 44 feet 2% inches, which beat the record 3 inches. He accomplished this wonderful performance in his street attire. The Cedarhurst Grand National and other races of the Rockaway Steeplechase Associa-tion will be held over from to-day until to-morrow. It is fortunale for a large number of race-goors, as the present Cedarhurst meeting as well as the Jerone Park races conflict on more than one day with the Brooklyn Jockey Club's sports at Gravesend. The postponement of to-day's Cedarhurst contests until to-morrow, when there is no rac-ing at Prospect Park, ought to greatly in-crease the attendance at the jumping races.

The May Stakes, for two year-olds, a dash of six furlongs, and the one-mile-and-a-quarter run for the St. James Hotel Stakes, at Prospect Park to-day, insure a jam on every boat and train for Gravesend. Sensible sports will leave the Battery by the 11 o'clock and 12.10 boats. There is always plenty of chance to pass away a little spare time at the grounds and paddock of a big race-track. It's Hanover and The Bard again, and on even terms, in the fourth race on to-day's will leave the Battery by the 11 o'cloc Ned crouched behind a pile f rubbish. There was a creaking on the floor. By the silver light of the crescent moon, as it broke through a fissure in the clouds, he discovered the profile of a fierce face peering out into the blackness of the night.

Evidently satisfied with this reconnoissance, the scout withdrew.

Ned was a brave, adventurous youth, ripe for any daring and hazardous exploit that might furnish him a sensational item; and here he had, with that luck so proverbial with all reporters, stumbled upon one, and he determined to make the most of it.

His curiosity was sufficiently whetted to impel him to attempt further discoveries.

Again he heard the low murmur of voices, and mistrusting that some rascality was being consummated, he emerged from his hiding-place, approached the door and stepped Remembering the tell-tale creaking of the floor, he dropped upon his bands and knees and crept silently forward, "How do you propose to get at it?" asked
